WAX TAPER SHOWS SIGNS OF OLD FORM

Captain Rice's Famous Handicap Horse Won the Feature Event at Delmar.

MENACE PLAYED, BUT BEATEN.

Mr. Fizer's Mare Was Heavily Backed and Sulked-Pourquoi Pas Won a Good Race-Ciales and Josie F. Won.

With four favorites and Wax Taper-who was backed from 7s to 4s-winning five of six races at Delmar yesterday the players were happy. The racing was true, so true that The Republic picked the last two races one, two, three, just as they were run, and the second race one, two, with Lexington Bess, who was picked to run third, in fourth place. Then The Republic picked Assessment and Wax Taper to be second. Both won. This shows that the horses ran right to form all the way. A bad start broke the first race up.

There was no particular feature to the racing, unless it was the nice race of Wax Taper. The old horse was a 7-to-1 shot when the betting opened. A heavy play by Taper. The old horse was a 7-to-1 shot when the betting opened. A heavy play by the public, which loves Captain Rice's horses—even if Battiste will ride them badly now and then—ran his price down to as. He had lots of early speed, closed like a flon in the last half mile and won easily from Varro and Alice Turner. Glenwood was run off his feet chasing Prosper La Gai, who was fast for a half and then stopped. Trainer Flippen says that Prosper does not like the track. It was soft and wet. Prosper likes a hard and dry track. Zanetto won the first event at a good price. Dale rode her well. Mr. Dade got a very bad start here, as half the horses were turned around when he let the other half go. Pourquoi Pas was at 2 to 1, a good price, and came home alone in the second race. A hot tip on Barnacle sent her price down from 10s to 12. She ran nowhere. J. Daly got her off badly and gave her a bad ride. The big bettors went to Assessment in the third race, and backed him from 10s to 3s. He won a lucky race, as Una Price, badly ridden, was only beaten a nose. She was coming fast at the end, and was best, but O'Brien outrode Booker for the money. Claics, Bengal and Van Hocrbeke galloped home in order in the fifth race. There was a huge play on Menace in the last event on the strength of a report to the effect that Plunger Dick Hanlon was playing her heavily in foreign poolrooms. Josie F. and Nettle Regent seemed to hold her safe. The race proved that they did. Bonner gave Josie a vigorous ride, and Nettle Regent ran second under a weak ride from Houbre. Menace looked promising to the strength. First exist surlongs selling.

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTERSTRETCH. West Baden Was Illegally Entered in Maiden Bace, as He Was a Winner. "Say," said a haggard-looking human epecimen, as he trailed into Captain Rice's stable yard yesterday morning with a tide high enough to float a battleship, "where is the Captain? I have a story to tell him that will kink his Illacs kinkler than the head of any of his Arkansas niggers."

"Captain Rice is not in just now, sir," said the affable W. W. Finn, who was on the the affable W. W. Finn. who was on the premises, and to whom the human derelict had addressed himself. "but if you will untie that package you have with you and display to me the wares of your brain I will see that your story gets to the Captain."

"Well," said the man, "this is a spite story. I want to get even with Pat Gorman, old man Wyatt and that rush. I have been working for them, and they have done me bad. I want to get even by getting them ruled off if I can."

"This," said Mr. Finn, who owes Mr. Gorman a deer grudge, "is like getting mazouma from mamma. Pray proceed, sir. Take a chalr."

ma from mamma. Pray proceed, sir. Take a chair."

"You know this West Baden who beat the Captain's horse, Little Chimes, in a maiden race the other day?" said the visitor.

"I certainly do," said Finn.

"Well." said the man, "West Baden had no right in there. He is no more a maiden than May Yohe. He won a race on October I?, 1909, at Morris Park. It was a faise entry in that race last week. Old Man Wyatt knew he was no maiden, but they put him in, and Pat Gorman bet the works on him. They won a block and a fortune. Little Chimes was second. Hence, the purse goes to Captain Rice. I am not a knocker, but I want to get even."

The man pulled together the string ends of his load, and once again took up his cross and moped away.

Finn loves Gorman, and was busy in a minute He got Captain Rice. They went to Secretary. Hachmeister and protested the payment of the purse to Mr. Wyatt, who owns West Eaden. Mr. Hachmeister looked up the horse, and found that he was not a maiden, and that he was entered in a race for nonwinners where he had no business being entered.

"Mr. Wyatt is perfectly innocent of wrong-doing," said Mr. Hachmeister. "He did not own the horse when he won this race.

"The horse was owned by a man named wrong-doing," said Mr. Hachmeister. "He did not own the horse when he won this race.

"The horse was owned by a man named Bchultz. He beat Support by a nose. Toddy Walsh was on Support, and he rode Quaker in the race in which West Baden was an illegitimate starter the other day. "The index in Goodwin's Guide, to which we refer for records of horses, does not indicate that West Baden ever won a race. The number of his winning race, 5654, does not appear in the index, but it is in the Guide. Mr. Wyatt looked at the index, did not see a "Inger" after his name and concluded that he was a maiden. He started him under this misapprehension. We have notified him to show cause why he should not refund the purse, which will, of course, go to Captain Rice. The bets on the race will. Of course, stand now, for they are paid. Had we discovered in time that West Baden's entry was illegal bets would have been paid on the next three horses. "I am sure." continued Mr. Hachmeister, "that Mr. Gosman had nothing to dd with the case. Maybe he bet on the horse; maybe not."

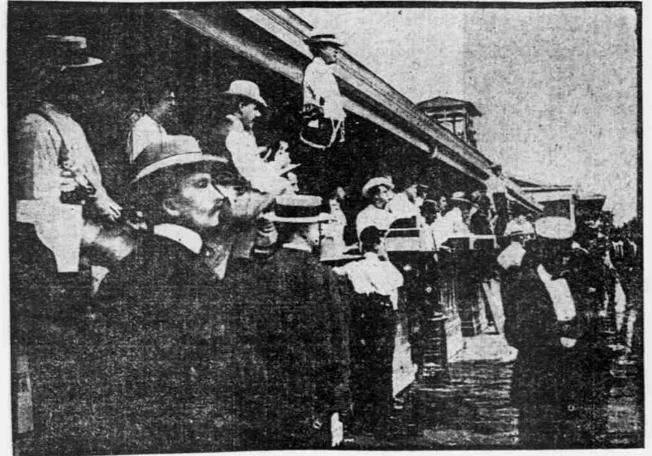

Whether Gorman bet on West Baden or not, the horse was a corked-up good thing.

Whether Gorman bet on West Baden or not, the horse was a corked-up good thing. He was merely walking to the last fifty yards and just ran away from his horses when Dale gave him his head.

Judge Brady had R. D. Williams on the carpet yesterday about the race that Seize ran the day previous. Mr. Brady, it is said, did not like the way in which the horse ran.

The authorities denied that any action had been taken, but it was whispered that Mr. Williams is not in good standing with the presiding judge.

Mr. Williams owns Seize. He also trains Mr. Williams owns Seize. He also trains the Schreiber stable. It should be understood that the Schreiber horses are not concerned in the affair. Mr. Schreiber has too good a reputation to be even distantly concerned in anything like a bad race, and whatever Mr. Williams might do with his own horses his handling of the Woodlands stable has been faultless.

man slipped him a hot one by handing him the horse. Forsythe could not make good, was ruled off and the cunning Mr. Gorman kept his horse.

When the sunve and smart Mr. Fizer wants to "feel how it feels" to be broke he starts Menace and bets the bank roll on her. Mr. Fizer won a barrel of money recently on his horses. So he got Menace ready, or thought he got her ready, and sent in the checks like it was all over. She Mr. Finn is implacably upon the trail of Mr. Gorman. When the latter's horse Ciales won the fifth race Finn bid him up to 11,200. Mr. Gorman kept the son of St. James for the usual 15 extra.

"I thought he would keep him," said Mr. Finn. "He let him go to Courtney Forsythe the other day for the same sum, but he picked his man well. He knew that Forsythe did not have the money to pay for him So when he made his bid Gor-

"This gentleman, Hanlon," said a turfman yesterday, "is the original wise guy.
Take my word for it, if lucre is filthy he ought to be quarantined. For he certainly is in an awful state of financial filth. He is $10,000 to the good off a $5 note. Lucky?
He is simply killed with it. Here he bets on West Baden, who is an illegal starter, and they do not find it out until it is too late to declare bets off. Then he bets on Velasquez, who won his first race in two years and his last in two more. It was an awful fluke. Then he bets the works on Assessment to-day and he wins by a scant nose from Una Frice, who is closing fast, who was execuably ridden and who would have won in another jump anyhow. Hanlon goes into winter quarters this season $100,000 to the good. Him bet on Menace? No. If he did she would have won. His money, makes a live one out of a lobster and a stake horse out of a goat."

After Fourquol Pas won the second race Paniels & Co. bid her up $490 on J. K. Hughes. Mr. Hughes kept the nice filly. Hell rode her a fine race. Daniels & Co. pulled off a nice coup with Zazel on two occasions. She was last one day and then heard the archangel's trumpet, took up ten pounds and ran Josle F. to a nose at a long price. Now Daniels & Co. have a huge bunch of money and are willing to bay horses.

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION.

Crime Looks Like a Winner-Jack Rattlin in the Spring Handicap. Fred Hessig has been running good races recently and looks best in the first event to-day. Joe Lesser will go well. He is fast, has been running among better horses and the change of trainers may have done him good. Approved is the property of a gentleman who is rather enamored of the particular "prep." he puts on his horses, and she may do. Blue Sea showed a nice race in the mud and has a chance. Mar-garet Steele will go well.

The other day, when Latuka was tipped by The Republic to win and did win, there was a hot tip out on Val Verde. This filly eot off last and ran a fair race. They say that she is fast. If she is she should beat this lot to-day. She was about last previous out. Tribes will go well and Lazarre will close fast.

Can Foundling stay? If she can she will win the third. If not, Sambo will come home alone. Foundling had a world of speed last out and finished well but cased up. Sambo's last race was a mighty one. Hucena will be in the money. Bacchus once won a race. Look out for Mr. Burrowes to-day.

The sprint handicap is a beauty. Jack Rattlin could beat every one at Washington Park. He has Miss Golightly and Father Wentker in his pocket at the weights. Hainault is not worth 30 cents. They say Croix d'Or does not like the track.

This leaves the race between Blue Blaze and Jack Rattlin. Blaze ran a good race the other day behind Jim Clarke. They say that Jack Rattlin can tow Jim Clarke. Then Jack Rattlin is "in" now. Blue Blaze will be second and Croix d'Or third.

Crime and Geheimniss have the fifth race between them. It is a case of even money each of them. Crime's last race was very good. L. Daly got her off badly, gave her a bad ride, and vet won with her. Geheimniss won in a walk. There is where the race

On his race behind Foundling the other day, Barklyite looks like a good thing in the last event, with a better boy than Winkline up. The Phoenician showed a rare bunch of speed last time out. They say that he cannot make the turns at Delmar because he is too big. Duela ran a good race last time out, and Bart Howe will be heard from.

AFRICANDER BEAT INJUNCTION. Keene's Colt Could Never Get Up to

Demei & Dwyer's Youngster. New York, July 29.-Demel & Dwyer's Star Ruby colt Africander won the Wingedfoot Handicap at Brighton Beach to-day. He carried 119 pounds and equaled the track record for five and one-half furlongs, run-ning the distance in 1:063-5. He was favoning the distance in 1.06.3-5. He was favorite with the Keen representative, Injunction, next in demand, while any price was against Smiles and Kisses. Africander made the running and won in a drive by three-quarters of a length. Injunction made a binff at the head of the stretch, but was never able to catch the winner.

Two favorites, one second choice and three outsiders divided the money to-day. Jockey J. Martin carried off the honors by piloting two winners and a third. Jockey Shea received a fall on Silver Twist in the fifth race, the escaped severe injury. Summaries:

Chicago, July 29.-But one favorite won at Harlem to-day. The other five events went to two second choices, and three heavily played outsiders, Jockey James Dupee, played outsiders. Jockey James Dupee, who rode a questionable race on Heien Paxton in the steeptechase last Thursday, was indefinitely suspended to-day. The judges also recommended that Dupee's license be revoked. Further investigation is being made tending to connect an owner with the alleged fraud. Helen Paxton beat a much better field in the Emerald Stakes yesterday, and this settled Dupee's case. TREATED

SEXUAL WEAKNESS

BY DOCTOR MILEN.

Sexual weakness, resulting either from vicious habits, excesses, the effects of siricture, prestatic and other special affections of the sexual system, impair the functions of the entire human organism, nervous, menual, physical and sexual. This male infirmity embraces a group of special conditions which are characterized by a host of signs or symptoms, and, if not successfully twated, induce grave organic diseases that often conduct their victims to premature and unwelcome graves. Among the myrind of symptoms incident to Sexual Weakness (not all of which, however, appear in a man at one time) are a continual tired feeling, extreme nervousness, mental depression, dizainess, headaches, restless nights, lack of confidence, loss of energy and ambition, palpitation of the heart and many other alarming indications of a general undermining of the system. I guarantee a prompt and permanent cure in every case of Sexual Weakness that I treat. I don't make an experimental laboratory of your system. Long years of experience enable me to at once select the proper curative agents that your individual case and condition demand. My system of treatment is one by which the methods of nature are imitated and re-enforced, it supplies the very elements that are lacking in the sexually impotent man and restores the nerve-wrecked and unhappy victim to robust, healthy manhood in a very short lime.

I Also Treat FREE Until Cured.

VARICOCELE cured in one week by my original painless method; Blood Poison with-cut the use of mineral poisons; Stricture without cutting or dilating; All Allments of Kidneys and Bladder, and Prostatic Troubles. Office hours—8 a. m. to 8 p. m. week days; 8 a. m. till noon Sundays.

LORD DERBY MEETS BORALMA SATURDAY

Greatest Trotting Race of the Year Will Be Decided at Charter Oak Track, Hartford.

Lawson's Great Gelding Beat His Own Time by a Quarter of a Second Last Week-New York Trotter Also in Great Form.

New York, July 29.-The greatest trotting race of the year will be decided at the Charter Oak track, Hartford, next Saturday, when Lord Derby, 2:06%, and Boraima meetin a match. These two famous trotters will race for a stake of $10,000, exclusive of the gate money, and it is the largest amount every contended for on a trotting track. Long before the snow left the ground last winter, Lord Derby and Boraima were taken in hand by their trainers. That the trainers' minds have been taxed with this task there can be doubt, but they have been rewarded for their conscientious and cautious effects in putting the horses in With the race only four days off, both trotters are said to be in fine form, and their recent performances confirm these re-Having started in at a gait which would

Having started in at a gait which would hardly keep even with a car horse, the trainers have gracually increased the speed, until to-day the tretters are ready to go as fast if not faster than they ever went before. Bornima, Thomas W. Lawson's great gelding, proved this last week, when trainer Tom Marsh sent him a mile in his work-out in 236%.

This is faster than the gelding ever traveled before, beats his own record and eclipses Lord Derby's best time. Mr. Lawson has held that Bornima had not yet reached his limit and, Judging from his work in training, he will make Lord Derby step some if he is to carry off the honors.

While Lord Derby may not have been asked to go as fast as Boralma, the New York trotter has advanced nicely in his training until he is now ready for the word. He has been doing miles around 2:08 and 2:10 in his work, but the performance which impressed his admirers most was at Cleveland last week, when he stepped a mile in 2:07% in company with the Monk and Dolly Dillon. The Monk won the deciding heat, but Lord Derby was hardly extended in his winning heat, yet he showed that he has lost none of his old-time speed by covering a last half in a fraction over a minute. MAUVEZIN WON STEWARDS' CUP.

Goodwood Racing Meeting Opens With Nobility Well Represented.

London, July 29 .- The one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of the Goodwood racing meeting was favored with perfect weather. The social interest in the oc-fect weather. The social interest in the occasion was somewhat dampened by the absence of the King, but the party at Goodwood House included the Duke of Cambridge, Prince Christian of Denmark, and Prince and Princess Edward of SaxeWeimar.

Great crowds journeyed to this most picturesque but least accessible of English race courses. The principal event was for the stewards cup, which has so frequently in recent years gone to rank outsiders, and the tradition was sustained to-day when the cup was captured by Mauvezin, who scarcely figured in the betting.

Mauvezin beat o'Donovan Rossa, who last

Loch Doone led for half of the journey, when Mauvezin drew in front, and, making of Donovan Rossa was three lengths shead of Master Willie. The betting was Mauvezin 10 to I against; O'Donovan Rossa 6 to I against, and Master Willie 20 to I against.

The American jockeys made a good showing. J. H. Martin landed Raven's Flight second in the Craven Stakes (of five sovereigns each for starters, with 150 sovereigns added, for 3-year-oids and upwards, distance one mile and a quarter). He accomplished the same on Hammerkop in the Richmond Stakes (of 5 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, distance three-quarters of a mile).

Maher won the Charlton welter handicap plate (of 200 sovereigns, distance one mile) with the Nadine colt. Martin came second on Binocie. Maher also won the Ham Stakes (of 100 sovereigns each) on the Mrs. Gamp colt.

TENNIS RESULTS AT LONGWOOD.

Doherty Brothers Withdraw From Singles to Pursue Championship. Longwood, Masz., July 29.-The tennis at the Longwood Cricket Club to-day was disappointing. Large crowds gathered to see the Englishmen, R. I. and H. L. Doherty, in what was thought would be good matches. Both did some playing, winning their match in the Eastern doubles in the morning and H. L. Doherty in the afternoon defeating J. C. Neely in straight sets. R. L. Doherty came onto the court and played a set and a half with Richard Stevens of New York, but rain put an end of play for the day.

Both the Dohertys then withdrew from the tournament for singles and for the rest of the week will confine themselves to playing in the Eastern doubles in the hope of winning this event so that they may meet the Western champions, Collins and Waidner, at Newport next month. In addition, M. D. Whitman, the former American champion, also withdrew, so that with the exception of L. D. Ware and Holcomb Ward, there is no first-class players left in this event. disappointing. in this part of the country. Collins by good play succeeded in winning the first two sets, 7-5, 7-5.

When the third set was commenced Collins immediately took the lead, and for a time it locked as if he was going to make it three straight. Little, to the surprise of everybody, however, by excellent play and good headwork, succeeded in winning the set, 2-6.

In the fourth set, Collins again took the lead, but was soon overhauled by Little, and despite the Kenwood player's best efforts, the Easterner succeeded in winning the set, 3-6. This made the match even, each having won two sets. They both played perfect tennis in the next set, but Collins used better headwork, and finally won the set and match, 6-3.

This is the second time Collins has won this event. Last year he was defeated by Little, To-day's victory gives Collins the opportunity of meeting the winner of the Eastern tournament for the national championship.
